

From the Christian Neighbor.

DEATH OF MRS. SHUFORD.—The intelligence is sad, yet true, that Mrs. Roxana Louisa Shuford, wife of Rev. Jacob L. Shuford, of the South Carolina Conference, after an illness of seventeen days, died at home, in the Rocky Mount Circuit, Chester District, March 21 1869. Sister S. was the daughter of Jacob and Mary Fulenwider, and was born Nov. 15, 1823, was married to Brother Shuford Nov. 6, 1849, and from that time to the day of her death she was a faithful itinerant wife, never saying locate, but "travel on." To read that this devoted Christian was an affectionate mother, a kind neighbor to the poor, an ardent member of the Church, a sympathizing member of the itinerant brotherhood, and a true help-meat to her husband, would to every one unacquainted with her, fail to convey a correct idea of her excellence. Though lively and agreeable in social intercourse, yet would she not, even in jest utter an untruth. No one could leave her company without carrying away the impression that she was a sincere experimental and generous Christian woman. The removal of such a light from the Church, community and household is no ordinary loss, yet, to this every day Christian, an extraordinary gain. Besides the smitten companion of her happy married life, she left seven children, the youngest only six weeks old. But what a rich inheritance falls to the mother less children in the godly life and triumphant death of a sainted mother! Of the scenes of her last hours, Brother Shuford writes: "She was perfectly sensible to the last. She called us to her bed and gave us her dying charge; told me what to do for the children, and that I must take the Christian Neighbor and Burke's Weekly for them; made all her arrangements as though preparing for a journey, gave directions about her burial; sent messages to her friends; spoke of herself—said you must baptize her little boy, and requested me to give you her dying farewell. Her greatest trial was to give up her babe. She said she would like to stay with us, yet felt that all was well—and died in Jesus." In darkness may light arise to the gloom-shrouded house of our beloved brother. The works of the departed do follow her, and she shall live again.

AN ITINERANT FRIEND.

MURDER OF BURWELL HILTON.—We learn from the Charlotte Times of last Monday, that Mr. Burwell Hilton, a native of this county was murdered one day last week by a party of negroes three miles from Charlotte. One of the negroes has been arrested and lodged in jail—another by the name of Munroe (Clinton, as given to us), is still at large and supposed to be at present in this county. A party of officers are in pursuit. The object of the deed, it is said, was to get possession of Mr. H.'s money, about $52 in silver and currency. Mr. H. was buried on last Saturday by the Fire Companies of Charlotte, of which he was a member. There is said to be considerable feeling in Charlotte at this outrage. —Lancaster Ledger.

A clergyman in Hannibal, Mo., having been interrupted in the performance of divine service by some disorderly boys who persisted in "talking out in meeting," descended from the pulpit and gave the youngsters a sound cuffing over the ears; after which he was allowed to proceed in peace.

DEKALB TOWNSHIP.

A Town Meeting of DeKalb Township will be held on Tuesday the 13th of April next, at the Court House, in Camden at 11 o'clock, A. M., when an election will also be held for a Town Clerk, three Selectmen, two Surveyors and a Constable, to serve one year.

A question will be submitted, that a further tax for repairing Roads and Bridges be laid by the Township.

A question will be submitted that the Surveyors be required to give official bonds with proper sureties.

The question of the rate of taxes to be paid by the Township, for the expenses of the Township and the support of the Poor will also be submitted.

The Selectmen will meet at the Court House, on the day before the election, and one hour before the time of meeting on the day of election and revise the Registration Lists.

COLIN MACRAE, Clerk.
